MEMORANDUM

Officer Kathy Jones was terminated from employment with the Middletown Police Department in September, 2004, as a result of her misuse of a taser gun on a prisoner. The prisoner was not Plaintiff Robert McFeeter, nor did the taser incident have any connection whatsoever with the allegations set forth by McFeeter in this case.

Evidence of Ms. Jones' termination is irrelevant to the claims in this case and would be unfairly prejudicial to Defendants. It is irrelevant because the fact that Ms. Jones exercised poor self-control on a single occasion nearly four years after the date on which McFeeter's allegations arise has no bearing on whether she was aware of McFeeter's alleged beating by two male officers. It would be unfairly prejudicial to Defendants, because the jury could possibly conclude that the offense is an indication of character with which she acted in conformity.

Accordingly, evidence of the termination and the circumstances relating thereto should be prohibited from trial.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Konrad Kircher
